STANZAS.

Pass on! for the bright torch of glory is beaming;
Go, wreath round your brows the green laurels of fame.

Around you a halo is brilliantly streaming,
And history lingers to write down each name.

Yes! ye are the pillars of liberty's throne; [wave,
When around you the banner of glory shall
America proudly shall claim you her own, [grave,
And freedom and honor shall pause o'er each

A watch-fire of glory, a beacon of light,
Shall guide you to honor, shall point you to fame,
The heart that shrinks back, he it buried in night,
And withered with dim tears of sorrow and shame.

Though death should await you, 'twere glorious to die,
With the glow of pure honor still warm on the brow;

With the light sparkling brightly around the dim eye,
Like the smile of a spirit still ling'ring below.

Pass on, and when war in its strength shall arise,
Rush on to the conflict and conquer, or die;
Let the clash of your arms proudly roll to the skies;
Be blest if victorious—and cursed if you fly!

THE HALLS OF THE MONTEZUMAS.

Montezuma II ascended the Mexican throne A. D. 1502, at the age of twenty-three, before Mexico had been discovered by Europeans. He died 30th Jan. 1520, in the forty-second year of his age, of wounds inflicted by Spanish discoverers whom he had invited to his royal palace.

On ascending the throne, not content with the spacious residence of his father, he erected another, much more magnificent, fronting on the plaza mayor of the present city of Mexico. So vast was this great structure, that, as one of the historians inform us, the space covered by its terraced roof might have afforded ample room for thirty knights to run their courses in a regular tourney. His father's palace, although not so high, was so extensive that the visitors were too much fatigued in wandering through the apartments, ever to see the whole of it. The palaces were built of red stone, ornamented with marble. Crystal fountains, fed by great reservoirs on the neighboring hills, played in the vast halls and gardens, and supplied water to hundreds of marble baths in the interior of the palaces. Crowds of nobles and tributary chieftains were continually sauntering through the halls, or loitering away their hours in attendance on the court. Rich carvings in wood adorned the ceilings, beautiful mats of palm leaf covered the floor. The walls were hung with cotton, richly stained, the skins of wild animals, or gorgeous draperies of feather work, wrought in imitation of birds, insects and flowers, in glowing radiance of colors. Clouds of incense from golden censurs, diffused intoxicating odors through splendid apartments occupied by the nine hundred and eighty wives, and five thousand slaves of Montezuma.

He encouraged science and learning, and public schools were established throughout the greater part of his empire. The city of Mexico in his day, numbered twice as many inhabitants as at present, and one thousand men were daily employed in watering and sweeping its streets, keeping them so clean that a man could traverse the whole city with as little danger of soiling his feet as his hands. A careful police guarded the city. Extensive arsenals, granaries, warehouses, an axiary for the most beautiful birds, menageries, houses for reptiles and serpents, a collection of human monsters, fish-ponds built of marble, and museums and public libraries, all on the most extensive scale, added their attractions to the great city of the Aztecs. Gorgeous temples—in which human victims were sacrificed, and their blood baked in bread, or their bodies dressed for food to be devoured by the people at religious festivals—reared their pyramidal altars far above the highest edifices. Thousands of their brother men were thus sacrificed annually. The temple of Maxtli, their war God, was so constructed that its great alarm gong, sounding to battle, roused the valley for three leagues around, and called three hundred thousand armed Aztecs to the immediate relief of their monarch. So vast was the collection of birds of prey, in a building devoted to them, that 500 turkeys, the cheapest meat in Mexico, were allowed for their daily consumption. Such were the "Halls of the Montezumas. Natural decay and a waning population, now mark the seat of power of the great Montezumas.

THE CITY OF MATAMORAS.—As this is the anticipated battle ground, opposite which Gen. Taylor is encamped, the following description of the city may prove interesting:—Matamoras is an old Spanish city, containing about 7000 inhabitants, and is beautifully situated on the southern bank of the Rio Grande, within its folds, so that its front and rear are both on the river. Seen from the American side, it has every appearance of being an American town.—The streets intersect each other at right angles, and appear to be lined with many varieties of shade trees, which gives the town an air of coolness, and renders its appearance very inviting. Many of the buildings are built of brick, and in the modern style of architecture. The Cathedral, inclosed, and buildings occupied by the military, are among the finest.

The dwellings of the poorer classes are constructed with cades, brush, mud, and the like materials, and are essentially Mexican. The town formerly contained double its present number of inhabitants, and was a place of some importance. This rapid decline is owing to their internal commotions, and the growing indolence of the people. The city has several fortifications, armed with guns of different calibres, and a force of 5 or 600 men is kept in them constantly. Since our arrival they have increased their force to nearly 3000 men, and have been working night and day upon the defences of the place.

ORIGIN OF THE WORD YANKEE.—Yankee is the Indian corruption of the word English—Yenglees, Yunglees, Yankers, and finally Yankee. It got into general use as a term of reproach thus: About the year 1747, one Jonathan Hastings, a farmer, at Cambridge, in New England, used the word Yankee as a cant word to express excellence, as a Yankee (good) horse, Yankee cider, &c. The students at the College having frequent intercourse with Jonathan, and hearing him employ the word on all occasions when he intended to express his approbation, applied it sarcastically, and called him Yankee Jonathan. It soon became a cant phrase among the collegians to designate simple, awkward persons; from College it spread over the country, till, from its currency in New England, it was at length taken up and applied to the New Englanders generally, as a term of reproach.

Why have you volunteered? said rather a care worn looking newly enrolled volunteer, yesterday, to a fine looking country soldier.

Why I volunteered because I have no wife, and go in for war, was the unequivocal reply; and now, why have you volunteered? he asked.

Ah! said the care worn countenanced little man—for he was little—with a significant sigh, I have volunteered because I have a wife, and I go in for peace.—N. O. Delta.

The editor of the Cherokee Advocate asserts, that in proportion to population, there are fewer men among the Cherokees who cannot read or write either Cherokee or English, than are to be found in any State of the Union.

Earth has no sweeter music than a gentle word breathed into a sorrowing heart.

resentatives from this town, in the General Assembly, to use their exertions to obtain the passage of an act, authorizing the Jail in this town, to be used as a reception for vagrants, and as a house of correction.

Messrs. Philip Rider and Daniel T. Swinburne, were added to the list of auctioneers.

The Town refused to appropriate anything to celebrate the fourth of July.

The State having appropriated the sum of two hundred dollars, for the purpose of educating two blind children in this town, the sum of one hundred dollars was added to that amount, by the town.

The meeting then adjourned, sine die.

FURTHER PARTICULARS

Of the taking of Barita and the designs upon Matamoras.

From the New Orleans Com. Bulletin of May 22d

By the arrival of the steamer Alabama, Capt. Windle, we have accounts from Pt. Isabel up to 5 o'clock on the afternoon of the 19th.

Gen. Taylor had arrived safe at the camp with the two hundred and fifty wagon loads of supplies, with which he left Point Isabel on the 14th. He was to have crossed the Rio Grande, on Sunday last, at 1 o'clock, at some point within three or four miles of the camp, and take possession of Matamoras, in doing which, it is supposed the enemy did not oppose him, as no firing had been heard up to the time the Alabama left.

It has been ascertained with certainty that the number of killed and wounded of the enemy, during the 8th and 9th, largely exceeded a thousand, while the killed and wounded of our army, numbered but 156. The wounded officers were doing well.

Two privates have died of their wounds, since the James L. Day left.

Two complete regiments of Colonels Marks and Walton, were encamped on the Brazos Island, and were to march with Gen. Smith at their head, on the evening of the day the Alabama left, or on the next morning, to join Col. Wilson's detachment at Barita. They were in good health and spirits.

The frigate Raritan, and the steam-frigate Mississippi, had left the mouth of the Rio Grande, the former, supposed, for Vera Cruz.

A small vessel had arrived from Galveston, with sixty Texan volunteers.

Capt. Amie, of the frigate Polomac, commanding the 500 seamen landed from that ship, proceeded up the Rio Grande.

From the N. O. Picayune, Extra, May 22d.

LA BARRA, (Mexico) May 17, 1846.

Here we are amid the Vice-Royalty of Mexico, at a beautiful little village on the right bank of the Rio Bravo, eight miles from the mouth. Old Zack—God bless him!—has through us, on this day planted his foot on this side of the River. You may be assured it will not be withdrawn until all the indignities offered our beloved country are amply atoned for.

This detachment, consisting of five companies of the 1st Infantry, and four companies of Volunteers, with one piece of artillery, is under the command of Lieut. Col. Wilson, of the regular army.

The military part of the expedition started alone this morning, and after marching about ten miles, found themselves at this village—which is situated on the first high and dry land above the mouth of the river; a beautiful ridge with a fine bluff' escapement. There being an Engineer along with us, it is thought that some fortifications will be planned.

This River is about 80 yards wide, very serpentine in its course, and about ten feet in depth.

POINT ISABEL, TEXAS, May 18, 1846.

Information was received from Gen. Taylor last evening, that he intended crossing over to Matamoras early to-day. Early in the morning a few cannon were heard. I suppose he has taken the place without opposition, as the remains of the Mexican army, 2000 men, were two days since in active preparation for retreat to San Fernando, 30 leagues south, the balance, not killed, drowned, or prisoners, have scattered in utter confusion to their homes. Never were an army so panic-stricken.

In the retreat from the battle-field of the 9th, Gens. Arista and Ampudia led the van on foot through the chaparral, stripping off their cloths as they ran, and when they arrived at the river, had nothing on but their shirts, streaming in the wind—they plunged in and swam across; many of their deluded followers sinking into that "sepulchre" that Mejia had promised to "the degenerate sons of Washington."

W.—We are again without a New York mail, this morning, at the time of putting our paper to press, (6 o'clock,) and it is very doubtful whether we have one to-day, or not, as the boat did not leave here for New York, yesterday morning, until half past 7, and she could not arrive in New York until late in the evening.

We have New York dates up to 6 o'clock, yesterday morning; at that time there was no further news from the seat of war than what we give.

For the Newport Daily News.

Interesting to Pedlars, without a License:

It is, perhaps, not generally known, that during the summer months, our town is infested with pedlars, and vendors of all sorts of articles, purchased at auctions in the cities—damaged goods, and trash that cannot find a market at home. These transient "birds of passage," infringe upon our laws—injure the regular tax paying trader, who has to bear the brunt of seven months of the dull season of the year, and take from him that little which ought to enable him to stand up against hard times.

Is this right—is there no protection against this, for our citizens? I answer there is. Let us, then, be united, and prosecute all interlopers, who do not take up a residence with us. If they are willing to brave the storm, as well as the sunshine, then success to their efforts; if not, let them bear all the consequences. W. GORR, and others.

You will excuse, kind reader, the above innocent deception to induce you to read this advertisement, as it is for your benefit as well as our own.

RE-OPENING OF THE UNITED STATES CLOTHING STORE.

A still greater revolution in the sale of READY MADE CLOTHING. New Store and new Goods, at the old stand, where the public have been favored with so many good bargains. 91 Thames street, one door north of Messrs. W. R. & E. J. Swan's.

THE PROPRIETOR of this Establishment has the pleasure of informing the people of Newport and its vicinity, that he has leased the new and commodious store, 91 Thames street, for the purpose of carrying on the Ready Made Clothing Business, where the public may be assured that they will always find on hand the largest assortment of Clothing and Furnishing Goods in the place, as well as the lowest prices. If I can but induce the people to call upon me, I will give them the most positive proof of the truth of this assertion, as I am determined to secure for the United States Clothing Store a tremendous run of custom, and, aware as I am, that competition is so severe, that the only mode of success is to offer my Goods at a small advance on Cost. Will the people call upon me? I will give them the most positive and pleasing evidence of what I say; still more, I will not urge them with undue persuasion to purchase what they do not want. The custom of forcing goods upon people has become so prevalent that they are sorely perplexed to know where they can go and be allowed the use of their own judgment in selection of Goods. Once more I beseech of you to call and examine my stock of Clothing and Furnishing Goods, before purchasing elsewhere, which consists of a large and good assortment of FROCK and DRESS COATS, of a variety of styles and colors; also, a large quantity of TWEED FROCK and SACK COATS; 2 or 3 dozen of the GOLD MIXED TWEED, a most beautiful article for summer, Kentucky Jeans, and a great variety of other kinds, too numerous to mention.

JACKETS.

Blue Broadcloth Jackets, made expressly for the United States Clothing Store, and warranted as good as custom made; together with Blue, Black, and Mixed Suits; Black Bombazine, and Green Baize Jackets, of various qualities and prices.

VESTS.

A rich assortment, consisting of some beautiful Cassimere patterns, some straight collars; Figured Satins, Plaids, and Stripes, do. Plain do. Silk and Worsted, black Silk Velvets, Dark Valencia, black Luteating and Bombazine, do. As well as the above articles, I have a great variety of Coats, Pants, Vests, and Jackets, made of various kinds of goods, which go to make up a full assortment, but which it is needless to specify.

FURNISHING GOODS.

I challenge the place to show such an assortment. I have Shirts of the latest French styles and patterns, with yoke necks, from $1.25 to $2.50; also, common Shirts, with linen bosoms and collars, from 67c to $1.50. Linen Bosoms, plain, pleated, and Ruffled, from 25c to $1.00. Linen Collars of all styles and qualities, from 8c to 25c. Cotton Flannel Shirts and Drawers, Lamb's wool, do; Portsmouth, do; Red twilled Under-shirts and Drawers; Hickory Shirts and Overalls.

HATS AND CAPS: the assortment is very large call and examine for yourselves.

Suspenders of every description, from 8c to $1.25. Silk, Gingham and Cotton Umbrellas; Hickory, Palm Wood, and Batten Canes.

Seamen's Clothing; Oil Suits; Reefing Jackets; Glazed Hats; Overalls, &c. &c.

Trunks, Valises, and Carpet Bags; also Ladies' Hat Cases; Fancy Articles, and Perfumery.

Also—R. B. EDE'S celebrated Hydrosamia or concentrated Prussian Essence, combining all the fragrant properties of the well known odoriferous compound, acknowledged by the Royal Family and Nobility, the most elegant perfume for the assembly or boudoir, imparting to the handkerchief a very agreeable, refreshing and lasting odor.

BOYS' CLOTHING.

The United States Clothing Store stands unrivalled in the sale of Boys' Clothing; and I have now on hand a large assortment of blue and black Broadcloth Suits, that will fit boys from 4 years old to ten. Also, a large assortment of Fancy suits of the best French Cassimere. Don't forget the number, 91 Thames street, sign of the large Widow, May 4 11-1

TO LET.

A Convenient Tenement, consisting of five or six rooms, suitable for a small family. Inquire of [May 12 11-1] PATTERSON & CO.

Newport Photographic Depot,

R. I. Union Bank Buildings, Thomas street. THE Subscriber would respectfully give notice to the Ladies and Gentlemen of this place and vicinity, that he has taken and refitted the rooms formerly occupied by him, in the R. I. Union Bank Buildings, for the purpose of executing MINIATURES by the Daguerreotype Process. Having but a short time since returned from New York, with all the latest improvements, he feels confident that he can give those that will honor him with a call, a miniature superior in tone, and finish, to any ever before offered to the public, and at prices that cannot fail to please.

None know how to appreciate these Miniatures, until they are called to part with a near relation, or an intimate friend, when perhaps it may be too late, to catch the light ere their shadow fades; therefore, those that wish a correct likeness, as well as a fine picture, of themselves, or friends, will do well to give an early call.

Any person leaving fine Paintings, Portraits, or Miniatures, can have them copied with great accuracy.

These Miniatures can be set in Locketts, Pins, Frames, Cases, &c., to suit the purchaser.

Persons sitting for a Miniature at these rooms, is warranted a perfect Likeness or no charge.

Miniatures can be taken as accurate in cloudy weather, as in pleasant, between the hours of 10 A. M. and 4 P. M. WILLIAM A. JUDSON. May 4 11-1

A valuable invention—a Sovereign remedy—a sure protection against Mosquitoes and other poisonous insects.

RADWAY'S CHINESE MEDICATED SOAP, may truly be said to be one of the most valuable, as well as the most scientific and useful invention for the health, comfort, and convenience of the human family, that mankind has ever been blessed with.

As an alleviator and preventor of pain, or irritation occasioned by the bites or stings of Mosquitoes, or other poisonous insects, this invaluable Soap is indeed a treasure. By applying it to the parts affected, it immediately abstracts the poison, allays the irritation, and protects the sufferer from all further annoyance from these troublesome insects. TO THE LADIES.

We would particularly recommend this inestimable Soap to their notice. It is equally adapted to all toilet purposes, and is far superior, as a purifier of the skin, to all Powders, under whatever name they may be called, as it is for medicinal applications; for while it softens and beautifies the complexion, it removes every vestige of Tan, Pimples, Blotches, Pastules, and all other blemishes of the skin, and, in fact, all cutaneous eruptions. No lady's toilet is complete without this valuable Soap; and no other article of the Toilet is required, when you have this in your possession. None are so beautiful, but what this Soap will improve. For sale in Newport by R. J. TAYLOR. 3m1-19

PELL'S FASHIONABLE REFECTORY.

THE UNDERSIGNED respectfully informs his friends, and those visiting Newport, that he has put his establishment in thorough and complete order for Spring and Summer business, and his arrangements are such that he will keep constantly on hand a choice and fresh supply of the best New York Oysters. He will also keep a supply of Oysters from various other places, to suit the taste of the most fastidious epicurean. He will also be ready to furnish Public Dinners, Suppers, or Parties, at the shortest notice; also dinners and suppers, for one or more, at his rooms, served up in the best style, and at moderate prices. His establishment will be in complete order, during the summer season, and the choicest and rarest viands will be kept constantly on hand. Also a collection of fresh confectionary, manufactured in the best style, and of the nicest materials.

He respectfully solicits a share of public patronage, and will warrant to give general satisfaction to all who favor him with their patronage.

HOUSE TO LET.

"Strange that a harp of thousand strings Should keep in tune so long."

THE subscriber has several chambers to let in his house which is beautifully located directly opposite Trinity Church Dying Ground; he will rent the rooms with furniture, or without, as may best suit the tenant. There is, probably, no more desirable spot in Newport, for those whose souls are not entirely steeped in sin, and wrapped up in the flimsy veil of this world's delusion; the occupant may sit at the window, and view the last home of man in all its mysterious and solemn grandeur,—and seriously reflect upon the great uncertainty of all things human. Here he can commune with himself, and meditate, in full view of the grave yard, on the final consummation of all things, and anticipate that universal crash, when the earth shall be burned up, and the heavens be rolled together as a scroll. We must reflect upon these things here, and be prepared with our passport when we meet the last Tyhr, or we shall receive the fatal mark of the black brush; why, land! what is a few day's sojourn in this miserable world, compared to a high seat in the Celestial Lodge above, where the Knighthood will be gathered in the pure robes of innocence and beauty?

In order to secure the chambers, early application should be made to, Sir THOMAS PRATT, K. H. S.
